ANNOUNCEMENTS

AT THE AUDITORIUM. Entire New Vaudeville Program and Fine Photoplays.

The program at the Auditorium never grows thresome, as there is such a great variety offered that the next act or picture is always eagerly looked for. Today's bill starts off with a single reel Powers drama, The Masked Rider, featuring Miss Edna Maison, and this will be followed by a most unusual two act 101-Bison production entitled Tribal War in the South Seas. This drama was produced in the Hawaiian Islands and is an accurate description of life among the various Kanaka tribes.

Louis Beimel, the xylophone expert, will lead off the vaudeville with his harmonious offering and he will be followed by Blondi Robinson, the dashing soubrette. Miss Robinson is looked upon by many as a second Eva Tanguay, and her snap and vim place her way shead of the average "single" act.

Experience has proven that an act such as presented by Harper and Lovell is always acceptable to Notwich audiences, and this clever pair of entertainers with their comedy singing, talking and music will keep things lively for a quarter of an hour.

Little Billy, the child comedian of the Steriing company, will appear last in Billy's Vacation. Suffice to say that this was constructed for laughing purposes only. Billy looks as if butter would not melt in his mouth, but "Oh my!"

Tomorrow brings No. 14, the next to the last of the Lucille Love series and this is the most exciting chapter of sensation is promised next Monday when the new serial The Trey O' Hearts makes its first appearance. The management guarantees it to be even better than Lucille Love.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Big Comedy Bill for the Last Half of the Week, Two Big Features,

For the last half of this week there is a specially attractive bill of feature photoplays and concert songs, the feature of which is The Wharf Rats, a two reel drama of brotherly love and sacrifice. It tells a story of a mother's love for her wayward boy and the splendid sacrifice the other brother makes to keep his mother's faith in his brother making one of the best phobrother making one of the best pho-toplay productions seen here this sea-son. Another picture that is also in the feature class is Mabel's New Job, son. Another picture that is also in the feature class is Mabel's New Job, a two reel Keystone comedy with Mabel Normand, the cleverest comedienne of the screen. There are 2,000 laughs in this picture. Our Mutual Girl in a new seriës of adventures, one notable one being her flight with Lieutenant Porte in his big biplane The America, is also on the bill. Her Really Mother is a pretty Beauty drama with the popular star, Margaret Fischer. Izzy and the Diamond is a Reliance comedy drama full of amusing situations from start to finish. This will be Messrs. Boyle and Craig's last three days singing here and they have chosen a concert program of the highest order that will put a fitting finish to their successful summer season. Mr. Boyle will sing The Mocking Bird Rag, a novelty song introducing some clever will sing the Modeling some clever novelty song introducing some clever whistling. Mr. Craig will sing When I Gathered the Myrtle with Mary, a beautiful tenor solo. Their duet is, Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms, the sweet old-time Irish song. In addition they will sing by request Love's Old Sweet Wong. Those who heard them sing this song before will not want to miss this last opportunity of hearing them sing it again. Next week the regular fall season will open with vaudeville and photoplays. A special big bill is booked for the opening program. Watch the Bulletin for particulars. Matinee every day at 2.30, 5 and 10 cents.

COLONIOL THEATRE. The Vanity Case, Vitagraph All Star Special Feature.

This wonderful special feature by the Vitagraph all-star cast, is a story of a most absorbing nature, telling of a young society girl who while of a young society girl who white shopping in a jewelry store, absent-mindedly puts a vanity case that she is looking at, into her muff, When she gets home she discovers the fact, and tries to phone the store, but it is closed. The store detective has seen the whole affair, and later in the eventual with the contraction who is at a recention, she ning while she is at a reception, she meets the man who saw the affair, and he tells her of his knowledge. He ne tells her of his knowledge. He needs money desperately, and by threatening to make known her theft, he forces her to steal her hostess jewels, and hide them in her hair. Her lover while stealing a caress later gets his cuff links caught in hir coffgets his cuff links caught in hir coff-fure, and discovers the jewels. He demands an explanation, but the pic-ture tells all too well of the outcome of the affair, which is decidedly pleas ing and unusual. The Neal Drink Habit Treatment is the modern method of treatment for drink habit. It is safe and sure. It is composed of harmless, vegetable medi-cines, administered internally—hypo-dermic injections are never used—and dermic injections are never used—and removes the craving and necessity for drink in three days. SUMMER DAYS.

Oh, the dear days! Oh, the sweet days.

How the summer loves the land,
How she lavishes her riches, giving them with eager hand;
Green of glass and rainbow glory
where the bright flowers blossom
free,
Gold of grain and feathery follage
where bare hillsides used to be.

Calm, clear water with wonder of the skies imprisoned fast,
Vagrant south winds bearing fragrance on their phinons wander past.
Oh, the warm days! Oh, the long days!
Each a sequence of delight
From the early morn till noontine,
from the noontime till the night,

We may find nepenthe's waters, drink and set our spirits free From the shadow of past sorrows, from the stear of griefs to be;
For the golden cup of summer overflows each happy day it soon will pass away!

—Ninette M. Lowater, in New York Sun.

Hot midsummer's petted crone,
Sweet to me thy drowsy tone
Tells of countless sunny hours,
Long days and solid banks of flowers;
Of gulfs of sweetness without bound
In Indian wilderness found;
Of Syrian peace, immortal leisure,
Firmest cheer and bird-like pleasure,
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.
